THE BREAKERS PALM BEACH RECOGNIZED WITH NAMED ROOM AT THE EDUCATION FOUNDATION
The Center for Public School Excellence and Innovation's Volunteer Breakroom Is Getting A New Name

(Lake Worth Beach, Fla.) – The Education Foundation of Palm Beach County is proud to announce that The Breakers Palm Beach is naming its Volunteer Breakroom at the Foundation's newly opened Center for Public School Excellence and Innovation in Lake Worth Beach, FL.

This distinction celebrates The Breakers' deep-rooted commitment to supporting local teachers and students, reinforced by more than 5,200 hours of volunteer service at the Foundation over the past decade. In addition to its hands-on involvement, The Breakers has made a generous $100,000 contribution toward the Center's Volunteer Breakroom, further emphasizing the importance of empowering educators and enriching classrooms.

"The Breakers has been a valuable partner in our mission to support teachers, students and schools," said James Gavrilos, President and CEO of the Education Foundation of Palm Beach County. "Its unwavering dedication—both financially and through thousands of hours of volunteer service—demonstrates the true meaning of community investment. Thanks to the organization, our new Center will continue to be a hub for educational excellence, providing vital resources for our schools."

Beyond financials, The Breakers fosters a culture of care by encouraging employees to use allocated work hours for volunteering via its Community Service Hours program. Through this initiative, team members engage in meaningful projects that create lasting, positive impacts in education and beyond.

A key partner of the Education Foundation, The Breakers has also played a pivotal role in championing Red Apple Supplies, the Foundation's free teacher resource store. Since first becoming involved, 647 Breakers employees have donated their time to ensure teachers have access to essential classroom materials.

"At The Breakers, we believe that investing in education is one of the most meaningful ways to strengthen our community," said Jorge Cabrera Jr., Senior Vice President of Accounting, Technology & Supply Chain at The Breakers. "Through our partnership with the Education Foundation, we've seen the positive influence the organization has had on teachers and students in the County School District. This naming serves as a tribute to the hundreds of Breakers team members who have dedicated their time to support the foundation and local schools. We are honored to be part of this collaboration and look forward to continuing the work of shaping a brighter future for Palm Beach County students.”
